The Newsletter of Marengo Community Development

Welcome MARISSA BRAL

She is the new Program Director for MarenGO. Marissa grew up in Marengo, graduating from Iowa Valley Community School District, where she spent her time heavily involved in the community through various organizations. She returned to Marengo after college with her husband and son to live where she grew up. Marissa has great education and career experience in Business Development and Real Estate that will aid in our efforts to continue improving our community. She is creative, innovative, and ready to work on any challenges that come her way.

“I am excited to start this new role as it will allow me to invest my time and passions into improving the community that I call home. I really enjoyed living in a small town as a child and I want to provide the same life for my son. Being in this role will allow me to build Marengo into a community filled with opportunities for our residents to thrive in.” - Marissa

We hope everyone had a great holiday! Thank you again to our sponsors and the volunteers who helped make Marengo’s celebration so great!

3RD OF JULY

THANK YOU TO OUR SPONSORS!

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

This month we are highlighting Lizzie's Dining Car & Caboose Bar. As some may have heard, the original owner of the restaurant, Liz Colony, will be stepping away so she can spend more time with her daughter, Emma Sue. Lizzie's will now be owned and run by Brie, Sebastian and Aiden! They are lifelong Iowa residents, all growing up in the Fairfax area. All three have years of experience in the food industry and truly enjoy being able to provide a great dining experience to their customers. They plan to keep the same "train theme" for the restaurant, but will be changing up the menu a bit. They would like to add their own spin on things with flavors and new dishes, but are still going to keep the best sellers and the classic options on the menu. Brie, Sebastian and Aiden have already expressed interest in expanding the space to provide a larger dining area, which would allow the possibility of having a Sunday brunch buffet! Make sure to stop by soon to enjoy the new menu and meet the new owners!

"We are excited to be here and show Marengo what we got!" - Brie, Sebastian & Aiden

"I am excited for them and the new energy that they bring into the business!" - Liz
